

What if I have not chosen my health care agent?

Washington State law lists who will make health care decisions for you if you cannot

The order for who will decide is:

A guardian with health care decision-making authority, if one has been appointed by the state

The agent named with health care decision-making authority in the advance directive

Your spouse or registered domestic partner (even if separated)

Your adult children *

Your parents *

Your adult brothers and sisters *

Any group that has more than one person: all in the group must agree to the care

Scan to learn more

www.honoringchoicespnw.org

info@honoringchoicespnw.org

Honoring Choices®
PACIFIC NORTHWEST

Washington State
Hospital Association

AN INITIATIVE OF
WSMA Washington State
Medical Association