

What happens if I don't choose a health care agent?

Washington State law lists who will make health care decisions for you if you cannot

The order for who will decide is:

A guardian appointed by the state

Named health care agent with health care decision-making authority in the advance directive

Your spouse or registered domestic partner (even if separated)

Your adult children *

Your parents *

Your adult siblings *

Your adult grandchildren *

Your adult nieces & nephews *

Your adult aunts & uncles *

A close friend who meets certain criteria *

*Any group that has more than one person: all in the group must agree to the care

Scan for more information about the Washington State law

