
INSTRUCTOR-LED DISCUSSION

Directions for Instructor Candidates

1. You will be paired with another Instructor candidate to work as a team to respond to questions that may arise during an ACP Facilitator Certification course.
2. Prepared questions will be distributed to the others in the group who will play the role of participants attending the ACP Facilitator Certification course.
3. Listen to the questions. Please do not automatically respond to each question by providing an answer or providing content. The purpose of this exercise is for you to demonstrate teaching skills that engage the audience. Practice responding to each question by using one or more of the following teaching skills:
 - a. Role modeling communication skills
 - i. Exploring the meaning of words and phrases
 - ii. Remaining value-neutral
 - b. Demonstrating critical-thinking skills
 - i. Asking others to offer suggestions about what they would do or say
 - ii. Encouraging others' points of view
 - iii. Asking additional questions
 - iv. Deferring questions that apply to a future topic or is out of scope
 - v. Clarifying (or identifying) personal values and biases
 - c. Summarizing questions and themes for group learning
4. When indicated by the Faculty, provide a brief summary of the discussion.
